This musical score is for the piece "The Great Wall of China" by John Williams. It is arranged for a chamber ensemble consisting of Oboe, Clarinet (Bb), Harpsichord, Percussion, Violin, Viola, and Cello. The score is presented in a system with seven staves, each corresponding to one of the instruments. The Oboe and Clarinet parts are in treble clef. The Harpsichord part is in treble clef. The Percussion part is in a single line with a double bar line. The Violin, Viola, and Cello parts are in their respective clefs (treble for Violin, alto for Viola, and bass for Cello). The score is divided into four measures by vertical bar lines. The Harpsichord and Percussion parts feature complex rhythmic patterns and intervals, with some measures containing multiple notes. The Viola and Cello parts have long, sustained notes with intervals marked below them. The overall style is characteristic of John Williams' orchestral music, with a focus on melodic and harmonic development.

The musical score is divided into two systems by a vertical bar line. The first system is in 6/4 time, and the second system is in 7/4 time. The instruments are arranged vertically: Ob., Cl. (Bb), Hpschd., Perc., Vn., Va., and Vc. The Hpschd. part features a complex rhythmic pattern with various intervals marked below the staff: 3:2, 9:5, 5:4, and 4:5. The Va. and Vc. parts have long intervals marked as 10:14 in the first system and 5:7 in the second system. The Perc. part is represented by a single vertical line in both systems. The Vn. part is also represented by a single vertical line in both systems.
